He holds a BSW from the Indiana University Graduate School of Social Work.

Jim Rinehart

Employment Counselor
WorkOne Auburn

Jim Rinehart first joined the Indiana Department of Workforce Development as a counseling intern in 1999. He later joined the professional staff in January of 2000, first serving as the Employment Counselor in the Marion, Indiana WorkOne center, then transferring to the Auburn WorkOne in June 2001. During his tenure, Mr. Rinehart has attempted to merge his counseling skills with his business skills learned in nearly 20 years of management in retailing, manufacturing, and sales environments. His goal is to provide high quality services in a seamless fashion.

In addition to his counseling duties, Mr. Rinehart serves as a facilitator on the counseling skills training team. This group provides training to department staff and partner agency staff on a wide range of counseling practices and other skills needed to conduct career counseling.

Originally from the Indianapolis Indiana area, he holds a Master's Degree in Counseling from Liberty University and a Bachelor's Degree from Ball State University. He lives in Ft. Wayne with his wife and two children. In his spare time, Mr. Rinehart enjoys playing trumpet in the orchestra at his church, and umpiring Little League baseball.
